

Salt Lake Scandinavian Dancers Present

Children & Family Scandinavian Folk Dance

Friday, May 2, 7-8:30 pm

Kaja Elizabeth Ouslebby, ca 1912

Karlene Kjerstin, Instructor

Karlene learned to love dance from her Swedish grandfather who frequently said "Dance makes the day better." Karlene has been teaching dance to children and families for more than 30 years. She believes intergenerational dancing brings families together and allows us to remember our roots.

Cottonwood Presbyterian Church

1580 East Vine (6100 S), SLC

7:00-8:30 pm; doors open at 6:30 pm; please arrive early

Everyone welcome! $5 children or $15 family, suggested donation

<http://www.saltlakescandance.org> - sponsored by Sons of Norway

Salt Lake Scandinavian Dancers Present

Children & Family Scandinavian Folk Dance

Friday, May 2, 7-8:30 pm

Kaja Elizabeth Ouslebby, ca 1912

Karlene Kjerstin, Instructor

Karlene learned to love dance from her Swedish grandfather who frequently said "Dance makes the day better." Karlene has been teaching dance to children and families for more than 30 years. She believes intergenerational dancing brings families together and allows us to remember our roots.

Cottonwood Presbyterian Church

1580 East Vine (6100 S), SLC

7:00-8:30 pm; doors open at 6:30 pm; please arrive early

Everyone welcome! $5 children or $15 family, suggested donation

<http://www.saltlakescandance.org> - sponsored by Sons of Norway

Salt Lake Scandinavian Dancers Present

Children & Family Scandinavian Folk Dance

Friday, May 2, 7-8:30 pm

Kaja Elizabeth Ouslebby, ca 1912

Karlene Kjerstin, Instructor

Karlene learned to love dance from her Swedish grandfather who frequently said "Dance makes the day better." Karlene has been teaching dance to children and families for more than 30 years. She believes intergenerational dancing brings families together and allows us to remember our roots.

Cottonwood Presbyterian Church

1580 East Vine (6100 S), SLC

7:00-8:30 pm; doors open at 6:30 pm; please arrive early

Everyone welcome! $5 children or $15 family, suggested donation

<http://www.saltlakescandance.org> - sponsored by Sons of Norway

Salt Lake Scandinavian Dancers Present

Children & Family Scandinavian Folk Dance

Friday, May 2, 7-8:30 pm

Kaja Elizabeth Ouslebby, ca 1912

Karlene Kjerstin, Instructor

Karlene learned to love dance from her Swedish grandfather who frequently said "Dance makes the day better." Karlene has been teaching dance to children and families for more than 30 years. She believes intergenerational dancing brings families together and allows us to remember our roots.

Cottonwood Presbyterian Church

1580 East Vine (6100 S), SLC

7:00-8:30 pm; doors open at 6:30 pm; please arrive early

Everyone welcome! $5 children or $15 family, suggested donation

<http://www.saltlakescandance.org> - sponsored by Sons of Norway

Salt Lake Scandinavian Dancers Present

Children & Family Scandinavian Folk Dance

Friday, May 2, 7-8:30 pm

Kaja Elizabeth Ouslebby, ca 1912

Karlene Kjerstin, Instructor

Karlene learned to love dance from her Swedish grandfather who frequently said "Dance makes the day better." Karlene has been teaching dance to children and families for more than 30 years. She believes intergenerational dancing brings families together and allows us to remember our roots.

Cottonwood Presbyterian Church

1580 East Vine (6100 S), SLC

7:00-8:30 pm; doors open at 6:30 pm; please arrive early

Everyone welcome! $5 children or $15 family, suggested donation

<http://www.saltlakescandance.org> - sponsored by Sons of Norway

Salt Lake Scandinavian Dancers Present

Children & Family Scandinavian Folk Dance

Friday, May 2, 7-8:30 pm

Kaja Elizabeth Ouslebby, ca 1912

Karlene Kjerstin, Instructor

Karlene learned to love dance from her Swedish grandfather who frequently said "Dance makes the day better." Karlene has been teaching dance to children and families for more than 30 years. She believes intergenerational dancing brings families together and allows us to remember our roots.

Cottonwood Presbyterian Church

1580 East Vine (6100 S), SLC

7:00-8:30 pm; doors open at 6:30 pm; please arrive early

Everyone welcome! $5 children or $15 family, suggested donation

<http://www.saltlakescandance.org> - sponsored by Sons of Norway

