

In Concert

An Evening of Scandinavian Folk Music

Photo: Robert Chandler

Bruce Sagan, one of North America's foremost—and most exuberant—Scandinavian musicians, performs and teaches fiddle, Swedish nyckelharpa, and the Norwegian hardanger fiddle. He earned the Zorn Diploma in Bronze, accorded to few non-Swedes, after playing for a jury of Sweden's best fiddlers. Bruce resides in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Photo: Seeta Söderbäck

Peter Michaelsen has taught and performed Scandinavian music since 1990. He plays standard fiddle, hardanger fiddle, and mouth harp. A staff member of several annual camps, Peter is known for his musical knowledge and dance fiddling. Like Sagan, Peter earned the Zorn diploma in bronze. He resides near Seattle, Washington.

Thursday, April 9, 7:30 pm

at the Historic Ladies Literary Club, 850 E South Temple, SLC

Admission $12; $6 if under 18 or student w/current I.D.

Doors open at 7:00 pm; please allow time to park parking is available along South Temple, and 800 East and 900 East

This special concert precedes Scandi Fest, our Spring dance and music workshops, and will include dance demonstrations by Judy Patterson and Jerry Walsh of Seattle, Washington, our instructors for the weekend.

for more information:

<http://www.saltlakescandidance.org> - (Scandi Fest 2015 tab)

Photo: Karen Hebert

Salt Lake Scandinavian Music & Dance is a tax exempt 501(c)(3)
Generous financial support provided by Sons of Norway Foundation

