

SCANDI FEST

Scandinavian Concert Dance & Music Workshops

Thursday-Sunday, April 9-12, 2015

Photo: Robert Chandler

Photo: Karen Hebert

Photo: Seeta Söderbäck

Bruce Sagan (L) joins Judy Patterson and Jerry Walsh and Peter Michaelson for Scandi Fest! The foursome shares something special—each earned an award (in Sweden) for mastery of traditional folk dancing or folk music. Judy and Jerry earned “Big Silver” medals for polska dancing, and Peter and Bruce have Zorn certificates in bronze for their fine playing, something seldom awarded to non-Swedes. The weekend’s Norwegian and Swedish folk dances include:

- ~ Vågå Springleik
- ~ Malungs Polska
- ~ Kall Polka & Bakmes
- ~ Orsa Polska

In Concert ↓ An Evening of Scandinavian Folk Music

Thursday, April 9, 7:30 pm, $12; $6 if under 18 or student w/current I.D.

at the Historic Ladies Literary Club, 850 E South Temple, SLC

doors open at 7:00 pm; please arrive early to park

Dance and Music Workshops - Dinner & Party

Friday-Saturday, April 10-11:
Cottonwood Presbyterian Church
1580 East Vine Street, Murray, UT 84121

Sunday, April 12:
Fitness on 7th Studio
2226 South 700 East, SLC, UT 84106

Dance Workshop - Fri eve to Sun noon	$60
Music Workshop - Sat am to Sunday	$30
Included with dance workshop
Fri eve intro	$15; Sun aft. - Orsa Polska
Saturday Scandinavian Dinner	$14
Saturday Evening Dance Party	$10
Party included with dance & music workshops
Students - half price for workshops

More at <http://www.saltlakescandidance.org>

Prices higher after April 1

Salt Lake Scandinavian Music & Dance is a 501(c)(3)
Generous support by Sons of Norway Foundation

Celebrating culture. Expanding horizons.